Of Special Interest This Week

25X1 + FBIS was able to provide Agency consumers and the White House Situation Room with the full text of the 14 September Moscow TV interview with former Agency employee Edward Howard within 5 hours of the broadcast time. The interview was also monitored locally using the Langley satellite antenna and videotape recordings were passed to key Agency consumers. [REDACTED]

25X1 + FBIS Analysis Group arranged a meeting on 5 September among SOVA, OSWR, FBIS Production Group and Analysis Group analysts to enlist a wide spectrum of expertise in addressing questions related to Gorbachev's latest extension of the unilateral nuclear testing moratorium. The Analysis Group judgment that important elements in the Soviet Union, particularly within the military, appear upset about the extension is based on media evidence summarized in the FBIS Trends of 27 August. SOVA's Strategic Issues Group has requested Analysis Group participation in a formal paper being written jointly with OSWR on the same subject. [REDACTED]

25X1 + The FBIS bureau in Seoul was in frequent contact with Embassy officers over the weekend to keep them alerted to reportage from Korean and other sources of developments in the wake of the 14 September explosion at Kimpo Airport. [REDACTED]
